EXPERIENCE

International Paper Company – Director, Ethics and Business Practice – 1998 to present

Create, execute and renew values-based, top-quartile global business ethics and compliance process for this 70,000 employee company and its stakeholders focusing on building an ethical culture, systems for compliance with integrity, reporting and anti-corruption policies and law, and with EEO, diversity, privacy, corporate social responsibility and listing requirements responsibilities. Responsible for the company's Code of Business Ethics, confidential internal and external reporting systems, ethics and compliance training, related publication content, resolution of compliance violation claims and process evaluation. Maintain highly visible presence internally and with external stakeholders, professional associations and governmental entities for corporate reputation enhancement. Report regularly to Public Policy and Audit Committees of the Board of Directors.

International Paper (Europe) S.A. – Chief Finance Officer – 1994 to 1998

Head of finance for $2.3 billion European manufacturing and distribution operations of International Paper Company. Leadership responsibility for sector strategic planning, refinancing, business systems and structuring, capital planning and management, acquisition and disposition of assets and businesses, and corporate finance. Principal functional accountabilities included treasury, tax, accounting, internal controls, internal audit, and performance reporting. Focused contributions in marketing and manufacturing alignment, achievement of low-cost commodity supplier position, engineering return to sustained profitability, restructuring of business debt and reporting systems development. Resided with family in Brussels, Belgium.

International Paper Company – Executive Assistant to the Chairman/CEO – 1993 to 1994

Responsible for enterprise-wide business process reengineering for finance. Revised work processes allowing creation of shared service center, reduction in finance headcount by 20%, and reduction in finance organization cost as a percentage of sales from third to first quartile level on an international benchmark scale.

US Overseas Private Investment Corporation (OPIC) – Executive Vice President/COO – 1989 to 1993

Appointed by the President and confirmed by the US Senate, with responsibility for income statement, product and service quality, employees, ethics and compliance programs and internal controls. Led US investment incentive programs into new nations of Eastern Europe and former Soviet Union, and transitional markets of Latin America and Asia. Successfully applied OPIC and other multilateral agency finance and political risk insurance to privatizations. Oversaw portfolio management of several $50+ million acquisitions of overseas businesses by US firms. Chaired Investment Committee responsible for all investment, debt and insurance decisions. Increased OPIC's net income by 36%, its annual investments from $187 million to $650 million, and its political risk insurance portfolio by 34% through marketing, product innovation and customer retention.

US Department of State, National Security Council – Program Director positions – 1978 to 1989

Directed joint State/Defense Department office that administered a $200 million annual economic support plan for three new nations in the Pacific. Secured long-term treaty for a multibillion-dollar scientific/military research facility in the Pacific. Represented the US at the United Nations and led successful campaigns for treaty approval in the US Congress.
